

Notice of Privacy Practices Maureen R. Libby, DMD, PLLC

This notice describes how health information about you may be used and disclosed, and how you may gain access to this information. Please review it carefully. If you have any questions about this notice, please contact our Privacy Officer (listed at the end of this document).

This notice of privacy practices describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information to carry out treatment, payment, or healthcare operations, and for the other purposes that are permitted or required by law. It also describes your rights to access your health information. We must also abide by the terms of this notice while it is in effect. We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and the terms of this notice at any time. Before we make significant changes in our privacy practices, we will change this notice and make the new notice available upon request.

How we may use and disclosure your protected health information:

When we give you our Notice of Privacy Practices, you will be asked to sign an Acknowledgement of Receipt. Once you have received our notice and signed the acknowledgement, we will use your protected health information for treatment, payment and health care operations. We may use or disclose your protected health information in an emergency treatment situation. If this happens, we will try to obtain your signature on the Acknowledgment of Receipt as soon as reasonably practicable after the delivery of treatment. The following examples show the types of uses and disclosures of your protected health information that our office is permitted to make.

Treatment: Your protected health information may be used and disclosed by our office and others outside of our office that we involved in your dental care. We will use and disclose your protected health information to other dentists and physicians to provide coordinate, or manage your health care. For example, your protected health information may be provided to another dental specialist to whom you have been referred to ensure that the necessary information is available to diagnose or treat you.

Payment: Your protected health information may be used and disclosed to pay your healthcare bills. Your protected health information will be used to obtain payment for services we provide to you. This may include certain activities that an insurance plan may undertake before it approves or pays for the services we recommend.

Healthcare Operations: We may use or disclose your protected health information in order to support the business activities of our practice. Healthcare operations include quality assessment activities, employee review activities, licensing or credentialing activities, conducting training, and conducting auditing or reviewing activities. For example, we may use a sign-in sheet at the reception area where you will be asked to sign your name and indicate your doctor. We may also call you to remind you of an appointment. We may also send you a newsletter about the services we offer. You may contact our privacy officer to request that these materials not be sent to you.

Business Associates: We will share your protected health information with third party business associates that perform various activities for our practice. Whenever we disclose your protected health information to business associate we will have written contract that will protect the privacy of your protected health information.

Your written authorization is required for other uses of your protected health information.

Any other uses and disclosures of your protected health information will be made only with your written authorization, unless otherwise permitted or required by law as described below. You may revoke this authorization at any time in writing except to the extent that our office has already released your health information as provided by your authorization.

Uses and disclosure permitted without authorization, but with an opportunity to object:

Family members and friends: Unless you object, we may disclose to your family member, a relative, a close friend, or any other person you select, your protected health information to the extent necessary to help with your dental care or with payment for the services we have provided. We will also use our professional judgment and common practice to make reasonable decisions in your best interest in allowing a person to pick up dental supplies, x-rays, prescriptions or other similar forms of health information.

Other disclosure that may be made without your authorization:

Required by law: We may use or disclose your protected health information when we are required to do so by law.

Abuse or Neglect: We may disclose your health information to appropriate authorities if we reasonably believe that you are a possible victim of abuse, neglect, domestic violence, or the possible victim of other crimes. We may disclose your health information to the extent necessary to avert a serious threat to your health or safety, or that of other persons.

Military Personnel and National Security: We may disclose the health information of Armed Forces Personnel when requested by command military authorities. We may disclose to authorized federal officials health information required for lawful intelligence, counterintelligence and other national security activities.

Worker's compensation & Health Oversight Activities: We may disclose your protected health information to comply with worker's compensation laws and to health oversight agencies when conducting investigations or inspections as authorized by law.

Required Uses and disclosures: Under the law we must make disclosures to you; and when required, to the Department of Health and Human Services when determining our compliance.

You have the following rights:

Inspect and copy your protected health information. You have the right to look at or get copies of your health information, with limited exceptions. You may request that we provide copies in a format other than photocopies. We will use the format you request unless we cannot practically do so. You must make request in writing to obtain access to your health information. You may obtain access by sending a letter to our Privacy Officer listed at the end of this notice. We will charge you a reasonable, cost-based fee for expenses. If you prefer, we will prepare a summary or an explanation of your health information for a fee.

Request a restriction of your protected health information. You have the right to request that we place additional restrictions on our use or disclosure of your health information. We are not required to agree to these additional restrictions; however, if we do, we will abide by our agreement, except in an emergency.

Request an amendment your health information. You have the right to request that we amend or correct your health information. Your request must be in writing. The request must explain why the information should be amended or corrected. We may deny your request under certain situations.

Receive an accounting of disclosure we have made of your health information. You have the right to an accounting of disclosure of your health information that occurred after April 14, 2003. This accounting will be for purposes other than treatment, payment, healthcare operations, or disclosures we may have made to you to your family members or friends involved in your care. The right to receive this information is subject to some exceptions. If you request this accounting more than once in a 12 month period, we may charge you a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Make a complaint about our privacy practices. If you are concerned that we have violated your privacy rights, you may file a complaint with the Privacy Officer using the contact information listed at the bottom of this page. You may also file a written complaint with the Department of Health and Human Services. We will provide you with their address upon request. We will not retaliate against you for making a complaint or change the way we treat you.

You may obtain a paper copy of this notice from us, upon request, even if you have agreed to accept this notice electronically.

Effective Date: June 1, 2018

Privacy Officer: Maureen Libby, DMD, PLLC
Address: 115 N.Loop 1604 W. suite 2009 San Antonio, TX 78232
Telephone: 210-403-0042